MURDER CASE FIRST ON CRIMINAL DOCKET

Gen. Chamlee Says Charle; Boswell Case Will Be Tried

Sure When Called. The criminal court will begin at important session Monday, Oct. 14, the first case called being that of Charley Boswell, colored, charged with the murder of Brad Williams, an old colored man. The murder was for the purpose of robbery. Atty.-Gen. Chamles stated that this case had been continued from time to time and that on Monday, Oct. time to time and that on Monday, Oct. 14. he was going to announce himself ready for the state and go into the trial. He said that following this case ten more murder cases would be taken up and in each one the state was ready and he had requested the defense to be. He said it would take a mighty good excuse to have a continuance granted.

Court will be called promptly at 5 o'clock and not at 9:15 or 9:30 or 10 o'clock as heretofore, for the attorney-general says he will be on hand and ready promptly at 3 c'clock and those straggling lawyers who come into court thinking they are in a justice court where 9 means 10 had better get a move on them. move on them.

Another thing which the attorney-to Rufus Carson, 809 Georgia general says should be stopped and will be if he can have it, and that is for officers to get it into their heads that the criminal court is more important than the police court, and when a case is set for trial in the criminal court for officers to be on hand and later make their excuses to the police judge and not to the criminal judge.
